For millions and millions of people, sport is one of the central elements of their lives. Many fans live their routines crossed by passion for one discipline or another. There are some more popular than others, with more or less followers. But they are all united by something in common and it is the passion that the fans feel for each of the teams that make up the leagues, the players that are part of the squads and the adrenaline that the matches generate.

Among the most important leagues in the world is the National Football League, more popularly known as the NFL. The tournament is the most prominent and relevant in the world American football scene. American football is one of the oldest sports in the world and is an adaptation of the mythical rugby. In this discipline two teams of 11 players each face each other and it is a game in which tactics and strategy largely predominate.

Basically each team runs in shifts. In each attack, the squad that is in that position will have 4 opportunities to advance in the territory of its opponent. If he does not, he will lose his turn to attack and go to defense. It is played with the hands but the foot can be used on some occasions.

The American football tournament is the most popular and important in the United States, even more so than the NBA or MLS. That is why we are going to tell you everything about one of the most important free apps for all fans of this sport.

The NFL app is available in the virtual stores of the terminals that use Android and iOS. The application will allow you to follow all the information, news, most important events, news, matches and much more of the contest.
